Senator Blumenthal did his best to boost the Communist Party. He spoke at the awards ceremony for the Connecticut People’s World Committee, an open Communist Party affiliate which sought to recruit new members. Blumenthal was introduced at the event by Lisa Bergmann, a Communist Party member. Bergmann and her fellow communist emcee, Ben McManus, issued invitations at the ceremony to join the Communist Party. Blumenthal presented certificates of special recognition to the night’s three “Amistad Award” winners, insisting they “honor the great tradition of activism and standing up for individual workers.”

Blumenthal also shows support for the Communist Party through his investment in Shanghai LLC., which is connected to the CCP. It was listed on his annual financial disclosure, until contacted for comment by the Washington Free Beacon earlier this year.
